Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking

LLD, its associated companies, members, directors, employees, associates and agents involved in the provision of Services will comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and codes from time to time in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

LLD represents and warrants that neither LLD nor any of its officers, employees or other persons associated with it:

- (a) has been convicted of any offence involving slavery and human trafficking; and
- (b) to the best of its knowledge, has been or is the subject of any investigation, inquiry or enforcement proceedings by any governmental, administrative or regulatory body regarding any offence or alleged offence of or in connection with slavery and human trafficking.

LLD represents, warrants and undertakes that it conducts its business in a manner that is consistent with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

LLD shall implement due diligence procedures for its own suppliers, subcontractors and other participants in its supply chains, to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its supply chains.

LLD shall notify the Client as soon as it becomes aware of any actual or suspected slavery or human trafficking in a supply chain which has a connection with this agreement.

LLD shall indemnify the Client against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs (including but not limited to legal fees) and expenses incurred by the Client as a result of any breach of this clause 1.

The Client may terminate the agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Subcontractor if the Subcontractor commits a breach of this clause 1.
